

Julius Streicher

THE NOTORIOUS

ANTI - SEMITIC NEWSPAPER DER STÜRMER

“The art of propaganda lies in understanding the emotional ideas of the great masses and finding, through a psychologically correct form, the way to the attention and thence the heart of the broad masses.”

Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf

“...effective propaganda must be limited to a very few points and must harp on these in slogans until the last member of the public understands what you want him to understand by your slogan.”

Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf

Nazi propaganda aimed at: vilifying the Jews, reducing Jews to less than human, stoking existing prejudice and stereotyping and blaming the Jews for all of Germany's and the world's problems.

The Program of National Socialism clearly stated:

Article 23:

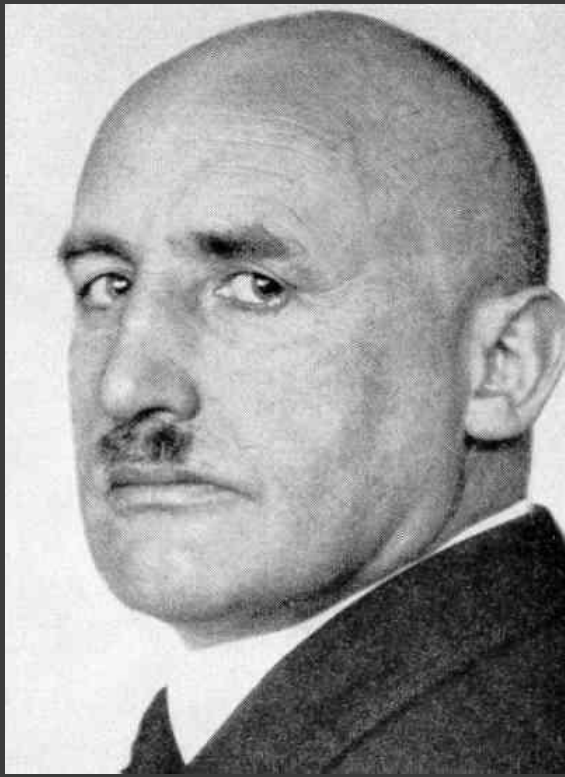

“In order to make possible the creation of a German press, we demand:

(a) All editors and their assistants on newspapers published in the German language must be German citizens.

(b) Non-German newspapers shall only be published with the express permission of the State. They must not be published in the German language.

(c) All financial interests in or in any way affecting German newspapers shall be forbidden to non-Germans by law, and we demand that the punishment for transgressing this law be the immediate suppression of the newspaper and the expulsion of the non-Germans from the Reich.

Newspapers transgressing against the common welfare shall be suppressed.

- One of the most despicable men of the Nazi movement
- Hated even by fellow Nazi party members
- Known as: World Jew-baiter No. 1, the biggest bigot in the world, the high priest of stupidity.
- His newspaper Der Stürmer was devoted entirely to rousing racial hatred
- One of the most widely circulated papers in Germany

- The one paper Hitler claimed to read consistently cover to cover.
- Streicher grew up Catholic in a small village in Bavaria
- Strict father and loving mother
- Subjected to anti-Semitic thinking throughout his childhood
- Became a teacher like his father, but not very successful
- Trouble with authority
- Took time off to join the army but had difficulty at first

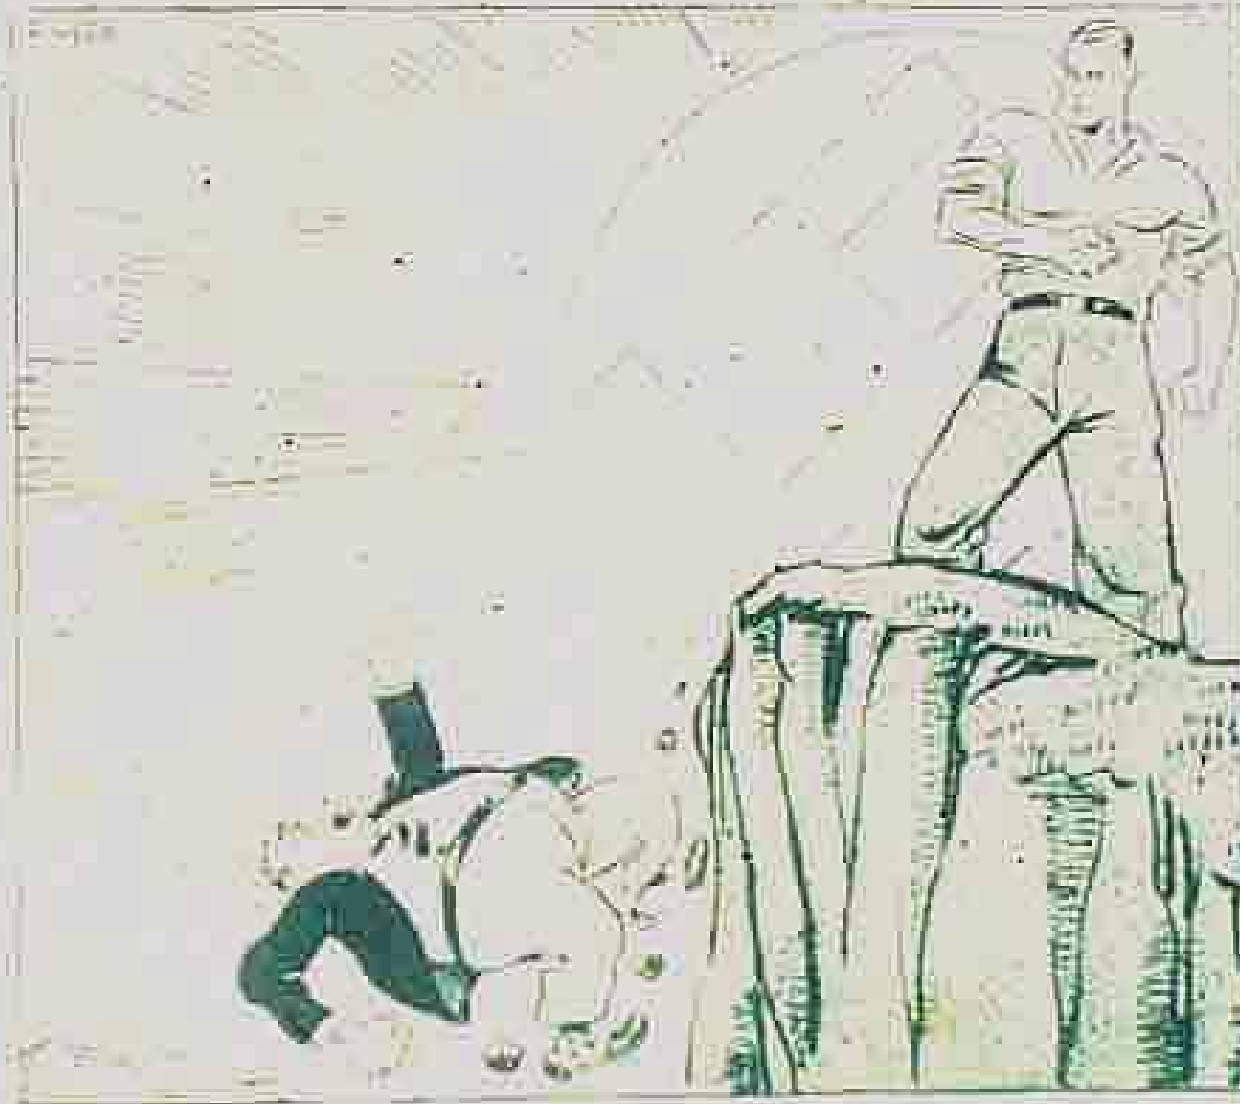

- He went back to teaching but that did not work out
- Got involved in politics and became a powerful speaker
- 1913 he married a woman of higher standing
- WWI he reenlisted and saw and loved a lot of combat
 - He won the Iron Cross and Iron Cross First Class
 - Became an officer
- After the war he became a radical anti-Semite
 - Came to believe fully the idea that Jews were a separate race engaged in a sinister plot to rule the world
- By 1920 he became interested in the Nazi party and started his first anti-Semitic newspaper Deutsche Sozialist
 - He began to focus on claims of specific Jewish crimes
 - He focused on racial purity and blood purity
 - He was racially prejudiced against blacks as well
 - He became the leader of the Nazi Party in Nuremberg
- 1923 he established the newspaper Der Stürmer

- Streicher was involved with Hitler in the Beer Hall Putsch
- He served one month in Landsberg Prison with Hitler
- Like Hitler he became a popular and sought after speaker
- He became a celebrity
- Became totally dedicated to the proclamation of Nazi anti-Semitic propaganda
 - Mass propaganda had to be simple, repetitious, and emotional
 - Effective propaganda required saying the same thing in different ways
 - He supplied the German citizens with a steady supply of material demonstrating the depravity of the Jews
 - Jews were responsible for the world's ills
 - Adolf Hitler and Nazism were Germany's Salvation
 - His fundamental argument: Most of the world's ills would vanish with the Jews.
 - Relied heavily on the standard themes of sex, religion, and violence

Nazi Party and Christianity:

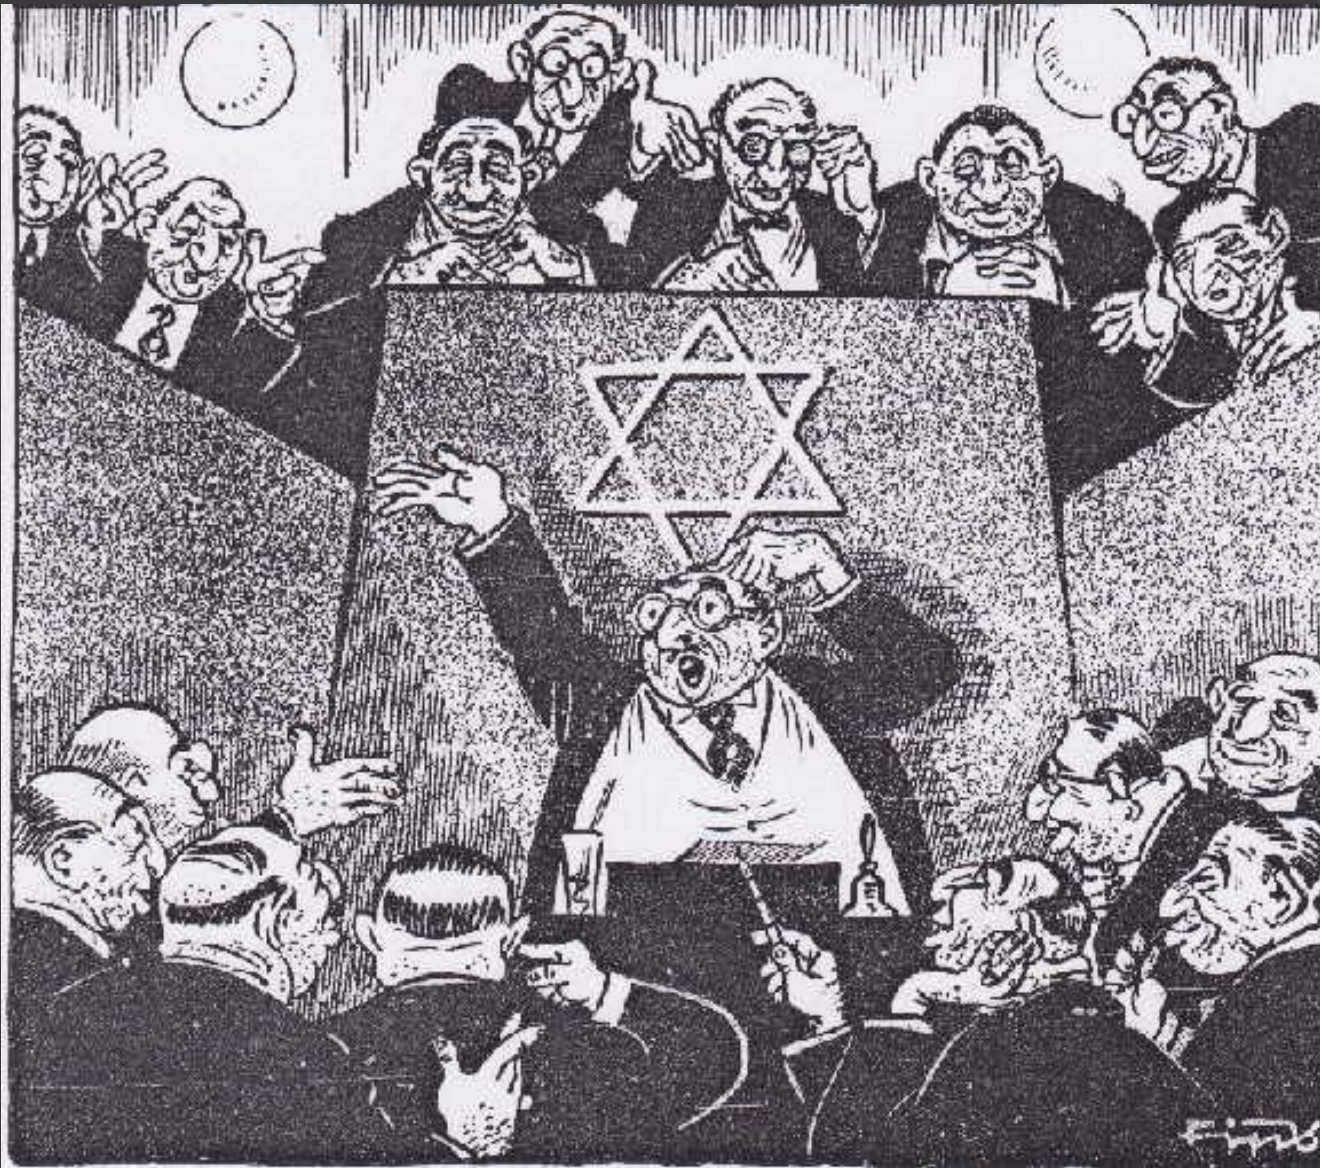

- Nazis had a “new” positive Christianity that was in no way committed to the ancient body of Christian doctrine
- Streicher argued the Christian religion no longer carried a true view of Christianity
- He claimed not to be attacking Christianity, but rather the perverted Jewish version of it the Jews had forced on Germany
 - He saw as well as almost all Nazis and Germany a “new Christ in the person of Adolf Hitler”
 - He believed Hitler was sent by God and had much in common with Christ! (?)
 - Nazi policy was to replace the Gospel of Christ with the Gospel of Hitler
 - The Church had sanctioned attacks of Jews for centuries
- In battling the Jews, Hitler was engaged in the noblest possible human struggle: “By warding off the Jews I am fighting for the Lord’s work!”

Wergeltung "REVENGE"

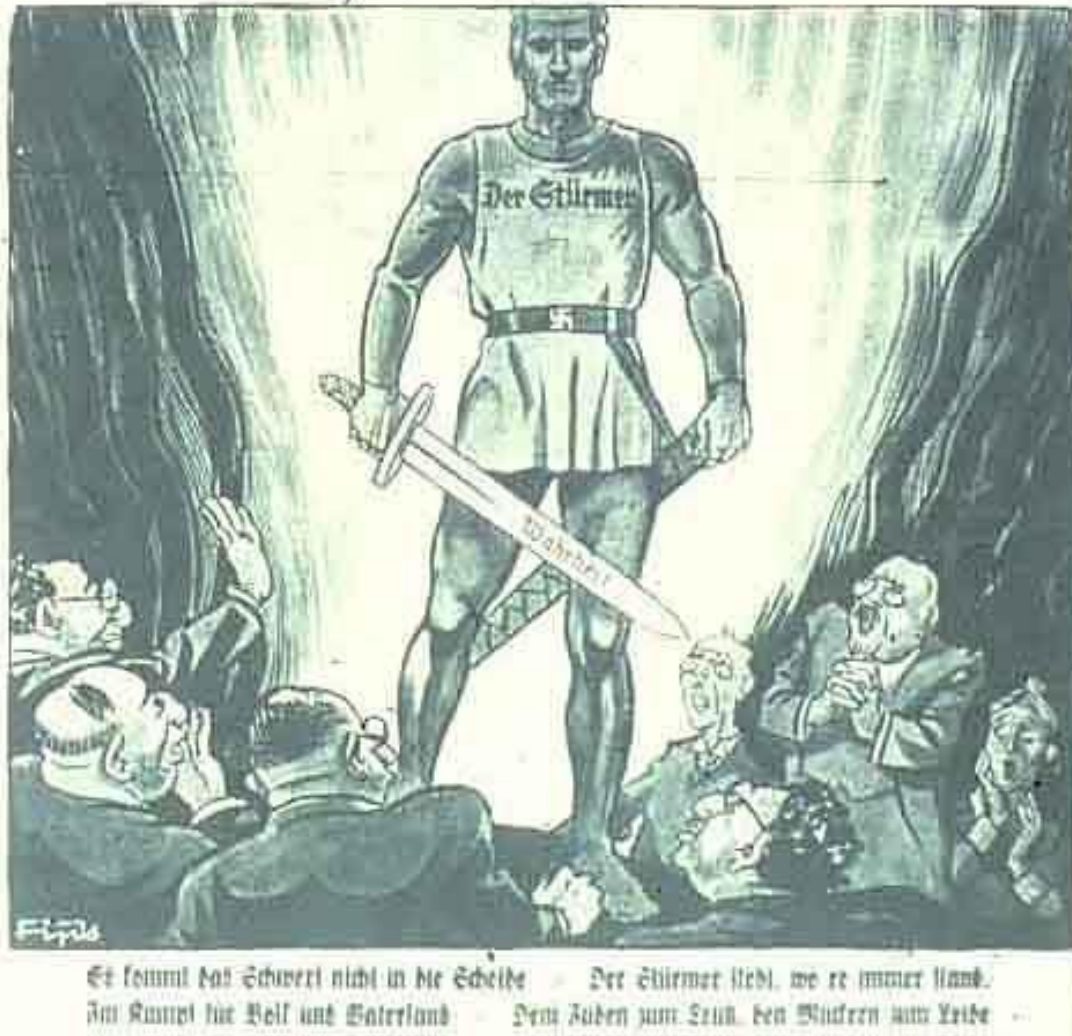

Jahre hin, wohin Du mich haben wolltest, Du Angeiss!

“Go where you wanted me to go, you evil spirit.”

“Let the Goyim believe that we can be Americans, Englishmen, Germans, or French. When our interests are at stake, we are always Jews, and nothing but.”

Zeune Loyalty

The sword will not be sheathed.
The Stürmer stands as ever
In battle for the people and the fatherland.
It fights the Jews because it loves the people.
